

A Conference organised by:

The Association for the Study of Medical Education (ASME)

Researching Medical Learning and Practice network (RMLP)

CETL for Work-based Learning for Education Professionals (WLE), IOE, London

Call for papers:

We welcome abstracts on topics related to the conference theme. Please see the ASME website for full details www.asme.org.uk

Enquiries:

Should be addressed to kate@asme.org.uk

Keynotes

Lorelei Lingard

Associate Professor of Health Policy and Evaluation, University of Toronto

Della Freeth

Professor of Professional and Interprofessional Education, City University

Trisha Greenhalgh

Professor of Primary Health Care, University College, London

Kevin Eva

Editor of ASME's journal 'Medical Education'

Researching Learning and Assessment in the Clinical Workplace

Who should attend this conference?

Staff involved in educating medical students, doctors, veterinary practitioners, nurses and healthcare practitioners

Medical educationalists who wish to broaden their perspective on qualitative research methodologies and develop their research skills

Those with a particular interest in conducting research in learning and assessment in the clinical workplace

Monday 17th November 2008

The Royal Institute of British Architects
66 Portland Place, London, UK

A Conference organised by: The Association for the Study of Medical Education (ASME), Researching Medical Learning and Practice network (RMLP), CETL for Work-based Learning for Education Professionals (WLE), IOE, London

Call for papers: We welcome abstracts on topics related to the conference theme. Please see ASME website for full details www.asme.org.uk

Enquiries: should be addressed to kate@asme.org.uk

Conference fee: ASME members: £185

Students: £135

General Public: £205

Programme

8:30 Registration and refreshments

8:50 Welcome and introduction

9:00 Keynote 1: Lorelei Lingard

Associate Professor in the Departments of Paediatrics and Health Policy, Management, and Evaluation, University of Toronto, Canada

When things go wrong...the power of qualitative methods for exploring unintended consequences in workplace learning

9:45 Parallel Session 1

Discussion Group

Led by Lorelei Lingard

Research methods

Workshop

Ethnography: Andrew Viv Cook
Brown

Analysis Workshop

Thematic analysis:

Presentation

CETL for Clinical & Communication Skills

Presentation

Submitted papers

11:00 Coffee and poster viewing

11:30 Keynote 2: Della Freeth

Professor of Professional and Interprofessional Education, City University, London

Illuminating the processes of observational research through a patient safety study

12:15 Parallel Sessions 2

Discussion Group

Led by Della Freeth

Research methods

Workshop

Narrative interviews: Caroline Daly

Analysis Workshop

Discourse analysis:

Will Gibson

Presentation

ALPS CETL: Use of mobile technology in assessment in clinical work settings

Presentation

Submitted papers

13:30 Lunch and poster viewing

14:30 Keynote 3: Trisha Greenhalgh

Professor of Primary Health Care, University College, London

Using stories in education and professional development

15:15 Parallel sessions 3

Discussion Group

Led by Trisha Greenhalgh

Research methods

Workshop

Sociometry: Ambrose Hogan

Analysis Workshop

Video analysis: Paul Bartholomew

Presentation

Submitted papers

Presentation

Submitted papers

16:30 Refreshments

16:45 Plenary: Kevin Eva

Editor, Medical Education journal

How to get published in medical education journals

17:30 Close of conference