

WORKPLACE-BASED ASSESSMENT: PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICE

A course for educational leads in Trusts, Specialty and Foundation Schools

Thursday 07 October 2010

Fee: £75.00

Venue: The course will take place at a venue in Central London

This cascade course is designed to support the delivery of training in workplace-based assessment in Trusts and other local education providers. As a representative of your School, Trust or Department we hope that the day will provide you with sufficient information and a range of educational interventions to enable you to teach others to deliver effective and meaningful workplace-based assessment.

Delegates attending the course will be expected to address how they intend to cascade training in workplace-based assessment to colleagues, senior trainees and other staff for whom they are responsible. This is not a training course in how to use specific assessment tools.

Examples used throughout the day will be generic and applicable across a range of specialties.

Course aims:

- Equip participants with some theoretical background to underpin workplace-based assessment
- Examine key issues in the implementation of workplace-based assessment
- Look at the types of assessment in common use
- Discuss how evidence from workplace-based assessment may be synthesised
- Explore best how to train colleagues in assessment methods

This course relates to the following area of the London Deanery Professional Development Framework for Supervisors:

Enhancing learning through assessment

Cancellation / fee policy: Cheques will be processed in advance of the course. Non-attendance on the day or cancellations made 14 days or less prior to the course will result in the cheque payment being retained by the Deanery.
